Stranding and Oil Spill Occurrence off the Coast of Mauritius on a Ship Operated by the Company

As stated in the press release dated August 7 (Also posted on our company website), the bulk carrier WAKASHIO ("the vessel") chartered by Mitsui O.S.K. Lines, Ltd. ("the Company") from OKIYO MARITIME ("the shipowner," subsidiary of Nagashiki Shipping Co., Ltd. [President and Representative Director: Kiyooki Nagashiki, Head Office: Kasaoka City, Okayama Prefecture]) and operated by the Company was damaged by stranding off Mauritius on Sunday, July 26, Japan time, on the way from China to Brazil via Singapore. On Thursday, August 6 while rescue work was proceeding, a part of fuel oil leaked out of the ship and this has had a significant impact on the sea area and local community.

After the incident, the Company established the "Emergency Control Headquarter" headed by the president, and has been working in cooperation with the relevant authorities in Japan and Mauritius. The Company has arranged an early dispatch of company personnel to the site and is continuing to make all-out efforts to resolve the situation as soon as possible in cooperation with shipowners and relevant parties.

With regard to the effect of this matter on the business results for the current fiscal year, we do not assume that the amount will be at the level that requires a timely disclosure, but we will disclose it as soon as it becomes necessary.
